APPLICATION
CHRISTINE OPSAHL / YCRC PEACE SCHOLARSHIP
EL CENTRO COLLEGE

Please see the Christine Opsahl / YRCR Peace Scholarship Requirements prior to completing this application. These scholarships are funded by the Youth Conflict Resolution Center (YCRC) of Dallas. Each scholarship will provide tuition for up to two courses for a maximum of three students for the current or upcoming semester at El Centro College for eligible students in pursuit of the Conflict Management Specialist Certificate.

NAME: _____

ADDRESS:_____ _____ ___ _____
Street City State Zip

PHONES: _____ _____ _____

EMAIL ADDRESS: _____

Are you pursuing a Conflict Management Specialist Certificate at El Centro College? _____

List course titles completed or currently being taken in pursuit of the Certificate:
_____ ___ Completed ____ Currently enrolled
_____ ___ Completed ____ Currently enrolled
_____ ___ Completed ____ Currently enrolled
_____ ___ Completed ____ Currently enrolled
_____ ___ Completed ____ Currently enrolled
_____ ___ Completed ____ Currently enrolled

If employed, please list employer and job duties: _____
_____

How are you otherwise funding your tuition for courses at El Centro College?
_____

Are you receiving other scholarship or grant funds? If so, please identify.
_____

Submit Application to Adam McGough, Director, Conflict Resolution Studies, El Centro College, 801 Main Street, Dallas, TX 75202-3604 NO LATER THAN SIX WEEKS PRIOR TO THE POINT AT WHICH STUDENTS MUST ENROLL IN THE COURSE(S).

NOTE: All scholarships are funded through the DCCCD Foundation. In addition to this scholarship application, students must also complete the DCCCD Foundation Student Scholarship Application Form (available from the DCCCD Foundation and online at http://www.foundation.dcccd.edu).

Scholarships are open to all students; however, preference will be given to students ages 17-25 so long as such preference does not significantly detract from DCCCD or El Centro College's non-discrimination policy.