

DCCCD Credit International Students

While over 2,600 students representing more than 120 different countries enrolled in Spring 2008 credit courses, 69% of these students were from one of the ten countries identified in the following list.

“Top Ten” Home Countries

Spring 2008 International Credit Students

International students were most likely to be enrolled at Richland (842 students), followed by Northlake (840 students) and Brookhaven (714 students).