Since 1965, we have served more than 3 million students. Dallas County Community College District (DCCCD) is one of the largest community college systems in the state of Texas, which includes seven independently accredited colleges located around the Dallas/Fort Worth area.

POSITION SUMMARY
Provides support for the daily activities in an assigned unit and knowledgeable in a specific discipline that aligns with the department, implements key business strategies and initiatives to meet the organizational goals.

REQUIRED KNOWLEDGE, SKILLS AND ABILITIES
Experience with the daily operation of an assigned unit or organization and serves as a professional consultant knowledgeable in a specific discipline, profession or industry. The ability to plan and maintain work systems, follow processes and policies that enable and encourage the unit to meet the organizational objectives.

Must have specific skill-based competencies required to satisfactorily perform the functions of the job include: planning and managing projects; preparing and maintaining accurate records; operating standard office equipment; utilizing relevant software applications; facilitating meetings and projects. The ability to understand new emerging trends in area(s) of expertise and prepares for changes that may occur because of these trends.

The ability to interact and work with individuals in a multi-cultural environment and welcome diversity within the organization. Able to work independently and be a strong effective team player, committed to delivering timely results; with excellent organizational skills and effectively manage multiple tasks and projects simultaneously. Ability to research and proposes new methodologies and technologies to enhance the work-flow process.

The ability to respond to written and verbal inquiries from a variety of internal and external sources for the purpose of resolving problems, providing information and/or referring to the appropriate personnel and/or identifying the relevant issues and recommending a remediation plan.

The ability to choose effective and appropriate communication and communicate in a respectful tone and manner, listen actively, writing clearly and accurately in a variety of contexts and formats and recognize cultural differences when communicating in a diverse environment. Must have excellent customer service skills.
PHYSICAL REQUIREMENTS
Normal physical job functions performed within a standard office environment. Reasonable accommodations may be made to individuals with physical challenges to perform the essential duties and responsibilities.

MINIMUM KNOWLEDGE AND EXPERIENCE
Associates degree plus three (3) years of related work experience. Official transcripts are required.  Will be subject to a criminal background check. Some positions may be subject to a fingerprint check. ***

ESSENTIAL DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES
Plans for the review and coordinates the processing of district materials including but not limited to contracts, board agenda items, financial reports. Reviews all documents and gather background information and making recommendations as appropriate within District guidelines and policies.

Engages stakeholders to gather information and track deadlines for same. May include determining the deadlines as applicable in order to obtain information for the purpose of incorporating comments and changes as appropriate. Manages contracts and other related administrative work, including managing and updating the contract status and tracking reports for the business unit.

Follows up with internal and external participants on contract related matters. Organizes and maintains filing system including on-site files and archives for the business unit. Interacts and maintains relationships with members of other business units as well as third parties.

Interacts with District leadership, campus staff and District Board Office. Interprets, advises, and summarizes contract requirements and compliance with District policies. Manages the process of archival of related documentations.

Assist department leadership in resolving routine and non-routine contract issues and special projects.

Completes required DCCCD Professional Development training hours per academic year. Must have excellent interpersonal, presentation, oral and written communication skills to communicate with a wide array of diverse stakeholders and constituents within the DCCCD community network.

May supervise assigned staff.

Performs other duties as assigned.

The intent of this job description is to provide a representative summary of the major duties and responsibilities performed by incumbents of this job and shall not be construed as a declaration of the total of the specific duties and responsibilities of any particular position. Incumbents may be directed to perform job-related tasks other than those specifically presented in this description. Position requires regular and predictable attendance.